Annual Summer Live-In Experience

The Sisters of Providence invite single women (between the ages 18-40 years, discerning a call to active religious life) to a weeklong live-in experience this summer, August 13-19. Contact Sister Mae Valdez, SP at 587-432-2088 or vocdir@sistersofprovidence.ca.

Thank you so much for supporting Together We Serve! Please remember that all your prayers, all your acts of mercy, and every gift you share are deeply appreciated. As an Archdiocese, we are now at 48 per cent collected toward our goal of $2 million. This is similar to last year's collection by this time. In early July, the second-quarter distribution will go out to the charities we support through our annual appeal. Donations are welcome year round, either through your parish or directly online at <http://caedm.ca/WeServe>.

It must be noted that parishioners have also been quick to open their hearts and wallets in support of the people of Fort McMurray. Early reports indicate that our archdiocese was very generous to St. Paul Diocese directly as well as through the Red Cross. May the Lord of Mercy bless you for your loving service to our needy brothers and sisters!

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus "wherever" (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that "wherever" means "nowhere to rest his head" (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to "call down fire from heaven" (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus "turned and rebuked them" (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus' disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul's challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus' decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of "biting and devouring one another" (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to "serve one another through love" (5:13).

Blessed Sacrament Chapel

If you would like to spend some quiet time with Jesus, the Blessed Sacrament Chapel is open weekdays during office hours. It is located just inside the south entrance to the church.

Welcome Newcomers

We want you to feel at home at Sacred Heart Parish. Also we would like to know that you are here. Registration Forms are available on the counters in the foyer. Completed forms can be dropped off at the parish office or placed in the collection basket at weekend liturgies.

Want to hear a pizza joke... nah, it's too cheesy. What about a construction joke? Oh never mind, I'm still working on that one.
